

ASC REPORT

|                                                               |                             |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Area                                                          | Fthiotida                   |
| Site                                                          | Lagonisi                    |
| ASC Status                                                    | Certified                   |
| 1st Certification Date                                        | 21/1/2025                   |
| Reporting Period                                              | 1/1/24-31/12/24             |
| Date of Report                                                | 3/2/2025                    |
| % of escaped fish                                             | 0,035                       |
| Estimated Unexplained losses <sup>1</sup>                     | Dicentrarchus labrax: 3,11% |
|                                                               | Sparus aurata: 0 %          |
| Wildlife Interactions- Birds                                  | 0                           |
| Wildlife Interactions- Mammals                                | 0                           |
| Mortalities of endangered or red-listed animals in farm area. | 0                           |

<sup>1</sup> Calculated at the end of the production cycle as= Stocking count-harvest count- mortalities-known escapes